

Art Harvest: Art saves orchards – orchards save art – a symbiosis

20.04.2024, 14.00 – 18.00, Arsenale Nord, Venice, Italy

See, taste, hear, smell – art as an experience, art as an ambassador, art and orchards – a symbiosis.

Who is the artist?
 A deep connection to nature is the driving force behind our art.

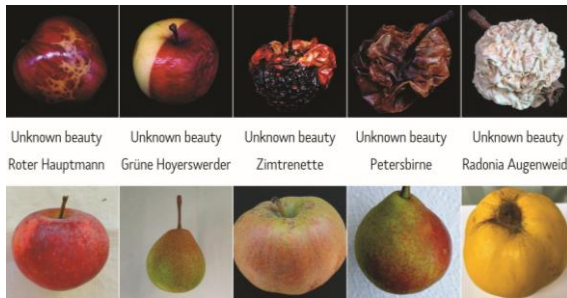

A deep connection to nature is the driving force behind the cultivation of orchard meadows.

The imperfect as perfection
 The beauty in the supposedly non-beautiful. A counterpoint to conformism. Genuine diversity.

The apple, the pear, rotten.
 Disgusting? The counterpoint: habitat for the smallest things - microorganisms, fungi, insects.

The transformation
 With Metamorphosis, we photographically accompany the different stages of the orchard apples: from fresh up to the final mummification.

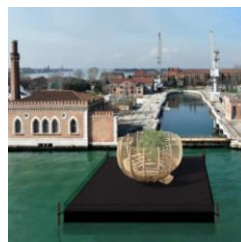

With Metamorphosis, we practically accompany the different stages of orchard apples from the "forbidden fruit" to the ultimate indulgence.
